

ACADEMIC APPEALS

EXPERT LEGAL ADVICE ON ACADEMIC APPEALS

Act now:

- Have you been withdrawn from your course?
- Have you been accused of academic misconduct such as plagiarism and/or collusion?
- Do you require assistance with drafting an academic appeal?
- Do you require assistance with drafting a statement?
- Do you require assistance with drafting a complaint?
- Do you have a hearing to attend?
- Has the university awarded you an MPhil instead of a PhD?
- Are you looking to draft a complaint to the OIA?

➤ We have a proven track record:

You instantly know that our academic appeal team comprises 'professional, reliable and honest solicitors' - ★★★★★ MT, Medical Student. We will work closely with you, pointing out the strengths and weaknesses of your case using a systematic approach and offering constructive comments to contribute to your case, sometimes pushing you to recall important details. The technical expertise of our academic appeal team is second to none. We give you moral support in keeping you strong and focused throughout the process. Although it might be daunting and emotionally draining to face legal accusations or expulsion from a university, we leave no stone unturned to give you a fighting chance of winning your case.

Our fees:

We offer fixed costs for drafting academic appeals unless we are required to litigate on your behalf.

Contact us:

Please telephone us on 0207 488 9947

Email: enquiries@rtcooperssolicitors.com.

You may obtain more information on academic appeals at:

<http://www.rtcoopers.com/academicappeal.php>

© RT Coopers, 2020

Testimonials:

★★★★★ 'I would like to take this opportunity to give a personal testimonial for, what I believe, is an excellent law firm... I honestly cannot fault the service I have received in any way, shape or form and would certainly recommend this firm to anybody seeking legal representation in their specialities. I won my appeal and I am now at medical school. The quality speaks for itself.' Ajay Doal

★★★★★ 'You and your team deal with our case with dedication, thoroughness and hard work. You were always contactable when we needed you. You did not leave a stone unturned... As a result we won our appeal against the medical school as the OIA held our complaint was justified!' AK, Medical Student