OUR APPROACH

We are expert media lawyers with extensive experience in providing advice on music production, drafting and negotiating media contracts including, recording contracts, publishing agreements as well as production, producer and remix agreements. We also draft contracts for production and TV companies involved in the production of feature films and TV series including option agreements, assignments of rights from a script writer to a film production company, crew and location agreements, agreements for actors and actresses and for directors and producers. In relation to theatrical productions, we have advised on the use of third party lyrics, melodies and the use of other copyright materials in works, and the ownership of intellectual property rights. We have also represented a number of companies regarding media disputes, especially in relation to ownership of copyright.

OUR OFFICE AND ASSOCIATES

We are located in London and to facilitate our clients' global reach; we work with a network of global law firms to provide advice on all aspects of corporate, commercial and media & entertainment law.

For large transactional work, we assemble special teams of corporate/media lawyers with the appropriate expertise.

We work with a number of experts in the music and film industries, giving us an edge over other service providers.
